DIX has lost none of his terseness and emphasis since his "shoot-him-on-the-spot" order, fifteen years ago. In his address at the Cooper Institute he touched upon Tilden's refusal to take part in the monster Union meeting of April 20, 1861, and said: "There is no statute of limitations for disloyalty to the Union."

The Burlington Hawkeye has been investigating this reform business. It reports:

John Kelley calls it "refar run," Geo. W. Julian calls it "reform," Lieutenant Hobbs calls it "reform," the Hon. John Morrisey calls it "refurm," Charles Francis Adams calls it "refum," Boss Tweed, with his Spanish accent, calls it "ra-forme." Bill Allen lays back the top of his head and calls it "ref-o-o-a-w-arm," and the American people, with a correct appreciation of its nature, simply call it "bosh."

It is a notable feature in the career of those desperadoes, the Younger brothers, that so long as they remained in Missouri they were unmolested, although they were well known and had committed numerous crimes. They and the rest of their gang were democrats. The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says of them: "The Younger brothers were unmolested so long as they remained in the democratic state of Missouri. They were patriots here, and the legislature was at one time about to grant them a general amnesty." The mistake that they made was in venturing into Minnesota, a republican state, where the political sentiments of a criminal are not allowed to shield him from punishment. The leniency that was shown him in Missouri illustrates Horace Greeley's saying that while all democrats are not horse thieves, all horse thieves are democrats.

The Democrats boast that they cut down the appropriations for 1876-77 by $23,000,000, less several million not included in the estimates, which will turn up next winter in the shape of deficiency bills. But the main point is, how much did they reduce taxation? What taxes did they repeal? In what way did they lighten the public burdens? The fact is, they repealed no taxes and did not lighten the public burdens one dollar, notwithstanding all their pretended economy and retrenchment. This is widely different from the practice of the Republicans when they controlled Congress. As soon as the war was fairly over and the army paid off and mustered out of service, the Republicans began repealing taxes, as witness the following list of reductions for several years, under Republican auspices, embracing simply the annual reductions in internal taxation and customs duties:

Act of July 13, 1866..... $97,000,000 Act of March 2, 1867..... 49,000,000 Act of Feb. 5, 1868..... 23,000,000 Act of March 1, July 20, 1868..... 45,000,000 Act of May 14, 1870..... 78,348,827 Act of May 1, June 6, 1872..... 51,833,761

The Republican rule was first to cut down expenses, and then repeat a lot of taxes, and thus lighten the burdens of the people. The Democratic rule is to pretend to reduce expenditures, create a big deficiency to be made good after the election, repeal no taxes, and then proclaim themselves as brilliant reformers!

DEMOCRACY.

(Communicated.)

DECATUR, Oct. 9.—
EDS. REPUBLICAN—The American Alliance charges trumped up by the democratic-confederate papers of the country against Governor Hayes seem to be taking a new turn and are shaking the dry bones of Samuel J. Tilden and the democratic camp. It appears over the signature of "L. S. Tyler, secretary A. A.," that they endorse the nomination of Governor Hayes for governor of Ohio, and this is what he thanked them for and nothing more. In like manner they endorsed the nomination of Gov. Tilden in 1872, for which he "expressed himself much gratified for the assistance, but wished it kept secret, as, if it became known he might lose the foreign vote." Just so, Mr. Tilden, here stands out in bold relief against your fox-like cunning and crafty disposition. Gov. Hayes thanked the Alliance in a manly way and said no more. Governor Tilden enjoins secrecy for fear he would lose the foreign vote. Can't any fool discern the difference in these two men; as to who is the man and who is the low, truckling demagogue? Just so in regard to everything else, when you compare the many traits of character of Hayes and Tilden, Hayes said that he would rather go into the war and be killed than to take no part in it. He did fight traitors and democrats. Tilden said, in 1861, "I for one will resist, under any circumstances, the use of force to coerce the south into the Union." The democracy are now claiming that Tilden manufactured all the canons used by the Union army, and sold them cheap to Uncle Sam, and he would have manned the same himself had it not been for the pleading of Mrs. Tilden, Boss Tweed, Vandigham, Jake Thompson, and a few other strong Union (?) men. The letter of Governor Hayes' private secretary was stolen from the rooms of the Alliance by some democratic reformer and published. Here comes in the propensity of this Tilden for stealing. Just like his party in 1860-61, for who doubt this was managed under the direction of this reform and innocent lamb-like child of nature Samuel J. Tilden. Oh, reform "free ballot or free bullets" says Mr. Tilden in 1864. They get the free ballots and will get the free ballots at the November election. Why? Because as the Clapton Enquirer, Chicago Times, Brooklyn Argus, all democratic tell us what kind of a man he was before he was nominated. They said: "we oppose Mr. Tilden because we have found him to be an insincere man; a trickster, a hypocrite, a swindler, a traitor, and a perjurer. This, besides being an old bachelor, would be a fine man to sit in the presidential chair, and that too, under the eye of democratic reform." CENTENNIAL.

MAXIMS FROM BILLINGS.—True criticism consists of saying a kind thing on an author, whenever you can, and whenever you can't it consists in holding your tongue. Tricks upon travellers are always dangerous. I have known a dead hornet to wake up and sting just once. Truth can take care of itself, but a live hog got to be watched iz karsel az a sore thumb. Mizery luv company, but iz always jealous. There never was a man yet but what thought his lame back waz a good fidelear than emoji body elses. Natur haz turned out sum indifferent jobs, but never turned out one so indifferent that art could not duplicate it. The sovereign mistake is, that things are valued for what they have cost, and not for what they are worth. Ingenuity iz wuss than hypocrisy. The hardest koutrakt that envy ever undertook to fill iz to be strickly honest. Mankind hav been failing for 5 thousand years, and i don't think they has struck bottom yet. Tryin to interest a very small audience with a comic lektur is a good deal like trying to hit the two corner pins on a 10 pin alley with a single ball.

A WASHINGTON dispatch to the New York Tribune says: "Information received here last night from New York, from well-informed Democratic sources, is to the effect that the managers of the Democracy began early last week to concentrate their energies on Ohio, having concluded that the moral effect of defeating the Republicans in Governor Hayes' own State would more than compensate for the loss of Indiana through any cessation of effort there. There is no doubt that during the coming week every resource of the Eastern Democrats will be exhausted in efforts to carry Ohio. These managers have become convinced that they are not putting their whole strength into the canvass; and it is this theory of the situation that has induced them to redouble their efforts." The managers will probably discover that they wasted their ammunition.

THE DEMOCRATIC ROUGHS AT URBANA.

Horrible Affairs in Missouri.

DENVER, October 7.—

The following are the Republican majorities on the candidate receiving the smallest vote on the State ticket, by counties: Arapahoe, 388; Clear Creek, 40; Elbert, 44; El Paso, 324; Gilpin, 283; Grand, 421; Larimer, 10; Park, 55; Summit, 14; Weld, 37; Boulder, 461; Saguache, 123; Costela (estimated), 300; Conejos (estimated), 50; San Juan (estimated), 40; Rio Grande (estimated), 50.

The following counties have given

Democratic majorities: Jefferson, 206;

Douglas, 51; Fremont, 10; Pueblo, Jefferson, 1; and the Democratic claim majorities as follows: Huerfano,

300; Lake county, 50; La Plata county, 100; Los Animas county, 500! But no official returns have been received from these counties.

This embraces all the counties in the State, and it will be seen from the figures that after allowing all that is claimed by the Democrats in the four last-mentioned counties, the Republicans would like to make them appear. It shows that in the bills for Southern claims introduced at the first session of the Forty-fourth Congress the amount of appropriations involved foot up the enormous aggregate of $2, 563,622,326—a sum considerably exceeding the entire national debt. These bills were kept in the background, during the session because of the effect on the Presidential election, but they were introduced in good faith, and in the event of Tilden's election, would be presented pertinaciously.

DENVER, October 8.—The latest returns from counties not yet reported officially reported only confirm the result in this state as heretofore reported in these dispatches. The aggregate republican majorities for members of the legislature will exceed 2,000. This is probably due to the fact that the legislature has the selection of Colorado's three electoral votes for president. The legislature is two thirds republican in both branches.

COLUMBIA, S. C., October 7.—Governor Chamberlain issued a proclamation to day, in which he says it has become impracticable, in his judgment, to enforce by ordinary course of judicial process the laws of the state within certain counties, and it having been made known to him that illegal organizations known as rifle clubs exist in the state, and as they are forbidden by state law, he forbids their existence, and orders that they be disbanded within three days, and that if they disregard it he will exhaust his own powers and then appeal to the United States government.

COLUMBIA, October 8.—The State executive committee have issued an address, denouncing Governor Chamberlain's proclamation, as unwise and dangerous. They say it is a violation of the Constitution.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Oct. 8.—One of the largest rallies of the campaign in this district was held in Urbana, last night, by Republicans, who were out enough to attend an eloquent address by J. G. Cannon, Republican candidate for re-election to Congress. Threec-aders were present from Mahomet, Savoy, Bondville and other places, and an immense procession marched from this city to the meeting, which was held on Main street in Urbana. Several thousand persons were present.

Several prominent speakers address the meeting, and the speakers were received with hearty applausage.

Fire Last Night.—Between twelve and one o'clock last night an alarm of fire was sounded, occasioned by the burning of the house owned and occupied by Mrs. McGinnis, at the corner of East William and Mill street. The fire originated in the one story kitchen, and may have taken fire from a defective flue, though Mrs. M. is of the opinion that the fire must have been set by an incendiary. The discovery of the fire was timely, and in season to prevent any damage of the main building.
Rescue Hose Co. and Young America Hook and Ladder Co. were first upon the scene, and soon had the flames extinguished. The other fire companies were also prompt in rallying, and were on hand ready for service had their help been needed, but as the fire had made but little headway, the first dash from the hose boys quenched the flames. No furniture of any account was removed, and none of it was damaged to amount to anything. The damage to the house will not probably exceed a hundred dollars.

A Shooting Affray.—On Saturday afternoon, a fellow by the name of Smith and Bill Brewer, both of whom were well charged with benzine, were practicing at Dunivan's shooting place on East Main street, when a dispute arose between them as to who was the best shot. Some pretty sharp words passed between them when Smith stepped back upon the side walk. In a few moments Brewer stepped up to him and knocked him down and then walked deliberately away. Smith soon gathered himself up and followed Brewer, and when within about eight or ten feet of him, drew a revolver and fired, the ball whizzing by Brewer's head in very dangerous proximity. Smith was promptly arrested by constable Wetzel and taken before Justice Hughes, where he was fined ten dollars and cost for carrying concealed weapons. In default of payment he was committed to the calaboose. He is a comparative stranger here and claims to have come from Kentucky.

A Republican Outpouring at Boody.—On Saturday evening last, Dr.
J. Brown, candidate for prosecuting attorney, Capt. T. J. Abel, candidate for the legislature and Martin Forstmyer, candidate for sheriff, addressed a large crowd at Boody, every seat in the school house there being packed and many being obliged to stand. All three of the gentlemen spoke greatly to the satisfaction of the audience, and were enthusiastically applauded. Boody and the region round about, are all right for Hayes.

Attention, Fire Department!—There will be a meeting of the Decatur Fire Department at firemen's Headquarters on West Main street, at the top of the bell, on Monday evening, the 9th inst. Every fireman of this department is requested to be present. Important business H. B. Dryer, Chief Eng.

Curtis & Righter's stock is now the largest in the city, comprising everything in the way of watches, clocks, jewelry, silverware, etc., etc. Their prices are always the lowest.

Attention, Eldorado Hose Co. No. 2.
There will be a regular meeting of this company on Monday evening, Oct.
8th, at 8 o'clock p.m., sharp. All members are requested to be present and bring their uniforms with them, to be cleaned and made ready for the tournament. By order of T. L. Antre, Foreman.

Groenback Meeting.—M. M. Hooton, Independent candidate for secretary of state, is advertised to speak at the Court House to-night, and the bill invites the people to "come and hear something that is neither Hayes nor Tilden."

The Decatur Commercial College is open to ladies and gentlemen. The course is practical, and the programme is unequalled in Central Illinois or elsewhere. Tuition $100 per year.
